Circle T (True) or F (False) for the following statements:

T   F   A page in logical memory is exactly the same size as a frame in physical memory.

T   F   A page fault handler is triggered whenever a memory request is outside the valid memory range of a specific segment.

T   F   The idea behind demand paging is to load only those pages into physical memory that are actually needed.