

Course Catalog Search Guide

Finding Course Information in the FIU Course Catalog

The FIU Course Catalog provides detailed information about all courses offered during the current academic year, as well as archived catalogs dating back to 1972.

Follow the steps below to locate information for a specific course.

Step 1: Open the Course Catalog

Visit the FIU Course Catalog at:

<https://catalog.fiu.edu/courses>

Step 2: Search for the Course

In the Search Courses field located in the upper-left corner of the page, enter the course you wish to locate (for example, COT 4601).

Note: Enter two spaces between the course prefix and the course number (e.g., COT 4601) to ensure accurate search results.

Step 3: Select the Course

From the search results displayed in the main panel, click the desired course (for example, COT 4601). A details panel will appear on the right side of the page with summary information about the course.

Step 4: View the Complete Course Details

In the details panel, click View Course.

The browser will open the full course entry, including the official catalog description, prerequisites, corequisites (if any), credit hours, and other relevant information.

The Catalog portal provides information about all courses for the current academic year as well as from catalog archives since 1972.

1 Open the Course Catalog

Go to:

<https://catalog.fiu.edu/courses>

This is the main Courses page of the FIU Catalog.

The screenshot shows the FIU Course Catalog search page. The search bar is empty, and the results list shows two courses: "18th Century European Art" and "19th Century British Women Writers". A red arrow points to the search bar with a callout box.

Use the Search Courses field to find a course by entering the course prefix and number.

2 Enter the Course Number

In the Search Courses field (in the upper-left corner), enter the course number (e.g., COT 4601) with two spaces between the course prefix and the course number.

Two spaces are required between the prefix and the number.

The screenshot shows the search results for "COT 4601". The search bar contains "COT 4601" and the results list shows one course: "Fundamentals of Quantum Computing". A red arrow points to the search bar with a callout box.

Enter the course prefix and number with two spaces. Example: COT 4601

3 Select the Course from the Results Panel

Click on the desired course (e.g., COT4601) from the Results panel. A pop-up window will appear on the right with summary details about the course.

The screenshot shows the search results for "COT 4601" with a pop-up window displaying details for "Fundamentals of Quantum Computing". A red arrow points to the pop-up window with a callout box.

Course details appear in the pop-up window on the right.

4 Retrieve the Course Details

Click the View Course link in the pop-up window. The full course catalog information will open in your browser.

The screenshot shows the full course catalog page for "Fundamentals of Quantum Computing". A red arrow points to the page with a callout box.

The full course catalog information is displayed on a dedicated page.

TIP: Information in the Catalog reflects the current academic year. To view previous years, use the Catalog Archives menu on the top navigation bar.

